13th Annual Luncheon!

Saturday, January 21st 2012

Ellen, on a Mt. Silliman ridge, looking into the heart of Kings Canyon, circa 1950.

This year, we will be remembering and celebrating the life of Dr. Ellen Simpson, who, with Dr. Mary Olney, helped shape our lives in learning how to live with diabetes.

And once again we'll be meeting at the Dead Fish restaurant in Crockett, California.

The Dead Fish restaurant is located at 20050 San Pablo Avenue in Crockett right by the Carquinez Bridge. For easy directions, go to their web site at:

www.thedeadfish.com.

A food choice needs to be made when sending in your reservation.

And yet again we are indebted to Mickey Vassia for keeping the cost of the luncheon low. The luncheon cost is still the same as last year, only $21.00 per person. Food prices have soared over the past year and a half, and we have all seen that at both our local grocery markets and restaurants. But Mickey has still managed to keep our costs low and stable, and for that we greatly thank him.

So reserve Saturday, January 21st, 2012, at Noon (lunch to be served around 12:15 PM).

Please RSVP by January 17, 2012, to Mickey Vassia by e-mail, phone or snail-mail (see contact info on other side). Come and dine with long-time friends!

SEE ALL YOU CAMPERS AT THE LUNCHEON!
